

April Mission

We hope you are well. We are within 40 days from our two Pastors & Leaders Conferences and our first Training / Evangelism Advance which is also a celebration of the completion of our first building.

Our new video summarizes our efforts at the Conferences in Uganda. It is an honor and privilege to serve these leaders with our time and resources which is why we invite you to partner with us again. We need to raise $29,000 for these conferences alone not including our travel expenses.

Our partner team from KICC invests a lot of time and resources to organize the conferences. They travel multiple times to each location and organize the local pastors who in turn get the word out to other pastors and leaders. The KICC team also organizes the meals and security and all functions of the conferences which are targeting at least 1000 people at each conference. If you traveled the roads there you would understand how long this could take. Lastly, they find a hotel that is secure for the American team as they want to make sure we are safe and rest well. They are true-servant leaders.

Each time I go on a mission, I am changed and my resolve to do more grows. When I see the joy that many poor have in Uganda, I am inspired to be a better husband, father, business person, and minister because God wants us to reflect his character and nature with joy and excellence.
